

meet & stay in the comox valley

Great Things Happen When You Meet in the Right Place

The Comox Valley offers a diverse range of meetings and retreat venues, set in one of the most stunning and accessible destinations on Vancouver Island.

The Kingfisher Oceanside Resort & Spa is a natural location for corporate meetings, executive and sales retreats, annual general meetings and group celebrations.

Our professional planners have the tools, knowledge and creative energy to coordinate every facet of your event from accommodation, food and beverage, spa services, shuttle services and recreational activities to ensure that your event is a complete success.

To book your meeting or event, or to receive information regarding meetings at the Kingfisher, please call 250-897-1677 during business hours or email meeting@kingfisherspa.com
